ANNOUNCEMENT

MR. SPEAKER.—I have received the recommendation of the Governor of Karnataka for the introduction and consideration of the Karnataka Tax on Luxuries (Hotels and Lodging Houses) (Amend ment) Bill, 1981 in pursuance of clause (1) and (3) of article 207 of the Constitution of India.

2-30 P. M.

SRI A. LAKSHMI SAGAR.—Sir, this list containing a number of Bills for introduction is given to us just now. I hope, you will kindly agree with me, when Bills are sought to be introduced, the leave of the House should be taken. The hon. Members of this House must have an opportunity of going through these Bills and submit their objections, if any, at the stage of the introduction of Bills itself. It is not as if, introduction of Bills can be taken for granted. Apart from this, the copies of the Bills are not made available to us.

MR. SPEAKER.—There is lot of force in what you are saying. I concede your point. The Bills should have been given well in advance, but in view of the urgency, I was compelled to permit the Government to introduce the Bills. In fact, this is an additional agenda.

SRI A. LAKSHMI SAGAR.—Sir, the consent of the Legislature is taken for granted.

MR. SPEAKER.—No, I do not think so. Now, I call the hon. Minister for Finance to introduce the Bills.
